The main point of contention is whether Patterson acted reasonably in removing the organ immediately or if amputation could have been delayed to let Seaton seek other medical options.

This person didn't belong there and he got in and the tool of his evil really doesn't matter.

Here it is: "As a queer person, I see having kids as a flaunting of heterosexual privilege.

Somehow, crazy people have more rights than law abiding citizens.

Pat Quinn applauded the House on the move, saying the bill will save lives as well as "help ensure every Illinois motorist is properly licensed and empower more immigrants to become stronger contributors to our economy.

My impetus for this blog is to serve as the clarion call to others, like minded or not, that our freedom is at stake in a world of increasing collectivism.

It's not gun control that is the problem.

The problem as I see it isn't equal rights, but superior rights demanded by people that aren't willing to accept that some people may not like them and because of their choices, there are consequences.

Of course we will see hand wringing about the poor mentally ill people can't get help etc, which is rubbish in many cases.

"For this reason alone, the resection of the tumor was 'necessary and proper' in the context of inserting a catheter," Stumbo wrote.
